HAPN: Who We Are

A coalition of community-based, non-profit agencies that serve people living with and at risk of HIV/AIDS in San Francisco.

We:

- ADVOCATE
- COLLABORATE
- SERVE THOSE MOST AT RISK
- RAISE $ TO FILL THE GAPS
HAPN’s Core Values Mirror the Council’s

- Prioritizing severe needs and special populations clients
- Improving coordination among agencies and assuring service choices for our clients
- Seeking fairness and transparency in the contracting and funding processes
- Maintaining the grassroots, volunteer-based, donor-funded, community model of care and prevention that is the hallmark of the San Francisco service delivery system

Our Broader Impact & Requests
The City has backfilled EVERY Ryan White & CDC Cut -- and is now the Largest Funder of Services
Collective Value and Impact

• Housing stabilization offers dignity, autonomy and access to nutrition for household.
• Food security supports medication adherence and stabilizes household.
• Medication adherence reduces hospitalization and improves workforce engagement.
• San Francisco Model provided basis for GTZ.
• San Francisco Model expanding.
Our Mutual Successes

• SF’s system of HIV care – nationally and internationally recognized

• HIV Health Care Reform Task Force

• Getting To Zero efforts

• Cost of Doing Business Increases

• Incredible impacts for our community
  – Reduced HIV infections
  – Increased viral suppression for the hardest to reach communities
  – Improved PrEP access
Preparing Together for the Future

- Health care delivery in the US (and the funding for it) has radically changed since the ACA.

- The future of health care and HIV funding is tenuous, unknown, and requires constant vigilance, advocacy, and the needs of our clients being front and center.

- San Francisco continues to be a leader across the country and internationally.

- Maintaining and expanding high-quality services for our communities require joint efforts of all parties.
Anticipating Gaps
Our Requests

• Increased collaboration and exchange/sharing of information → commit to meeting quarterly?

• Coordinate efforts at key milestones (prioritization setting, city budgeting process, federal funding/policy efforts)

• Continue to support involvement with CAEAR Coalition

• Please attend our meetings!
